FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University junior Peggy Moore (right) of Mt. Zion is the alternate recipient of the Florence McAfee Scholarship established in memory of Dr. McAfee who was head of the department of physical education for women from 1924-62. The award annually goes to a second semester sophomore or junior woman physical education major who demonstrates the qualities of scholarship, leadership, and professional excellence. Selection is made by a committee from the Department of Physical Education. Also pictured are William McCabe, head of the Department of Physical Education, and Lori Gill (left) of Normal, who was the recipient.
