Also on the program is Jack Taylor, a school lawyer who will present updates on new educational laws.

The Executive Director of the Illinois Principals' Association, Dr. Jack Moomey, will provide an update of the IPA. He will also discuss the importance of leadership initiatives for high school principals and superintendents.

Gene Sams, principal at Mt. Carmel High School and Mike Collins, principal at Ball-Chatham High School in Glenwood, will explain the new visitation format for the North Central Association's Outcomes-Based Accreditation Visits.

Illinois school principals, superintendents and administrators interested in attending the meeting may contact Eastern's Department of Education Administration at area code (217) 581-2919.
