FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TALBOTT RECEIVES TELEFUND SCHOLARSHIP

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University student Karen Talbott has been presented the College of Education and Professional Studies Telefund Scholarship.

The scholarship recognizes scholarship, leadership and service and is to be used by Talbott to attend a professional meeting of her choice. Talbott will be attending the CEC National Convention in Indianapolis in April.

Talbott was chosen by the faculty of the Department of Special Education as one of four of 407 majors to receive the scholarship for 1994-95.

The scholarship is funded by donations from alumni of Eastern's College of Education and Professional Studies.

Talbott, a 1990 graduate of Potomac High School, is a senior at Eastern majoring in special education. She is married to Chad Talbott of Tilton.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself in the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.
