WEBER RECEIVES AWARD FROM EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

CHARLESTON -- Sarah Weber, daughter of Wesley and Pat Weber of Fairfield, was awarded the Management Excellence Award during the Eastern Illinois University College of Business Awards Ceremony held April 18.

The award is presented to a student that excels in the classroom as well as in campus and community activities.

In addition, Weber is in her fourth year of the Cooley-Marathon Scholarship. The continuing award established by Eastern alum, Rex Cooley, and his wife Nancy of Scottsdale, Ariz., is administered through the Eastern Foundation and given to business students based on academic performance and potential for achievement.

Weber is a 1995 graduate of Fairfield Community High School and a senior management major with a concentration in human resources.

The Foundation, with an endowment exceeding $18.5 million, was established in
