FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HORSMAN RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARDS

CHARLESTON -- Krystal Horsman, daughter of David and Carolyn Horsman of Sullivan, is the recipient of the Finance Faculty Award and the Phi Gamma Nu Scholarship Certificate from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

The Finance Faculty Award goes to a senior finance major who has a professional interest in finance, is active in extra-curricular activities, makes significant contributions to the finance program and shows excellent academic abilities.

The Phi Gamma Nu certificate goes to the organization's senior with the highest grade point average.

Horsman, a senior finance and computer management major, is a 1993 graduate of Sullivan High School.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.

Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
