FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Several students enrolled in the College of Business at Eastern Illinois University have been honored for "outstanding achievement and service."

Kim Pieper, Orland Park, is the 1984 recipient of the Computer Management Scholarship Award. The award was established by student members of the Collegiate Chapter of the Data Processing Management Association "to recognize a student whose personal qualities, work habits, interest and success promises distinction in the field of computer management."

Miss Pieper's name will appear on a plaque. She also received the Phi Gamma Nu Scholarship Key, an award given annually to the senior with the highest grade point average in business and economics. Phi Gamma Nu is a professional sorority in business administration.
