FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BELLOT RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Brian Bellot, son of James and Phyllis Bellot of Forrest, is the recipient of the Phi Gamma Nu Highest Junior Grade Point Average Award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

The award, given annually, goes to the Phi Gamma Nu member with the highest grade point average.

Bellot, who is majoring in management, is a 1994 graduate of Prairie Central High School in Fairbury.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.

Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
