FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Several students enrolled in the College of Business at Eastern Illinois University have been honored for "outstanding achievement and service."

Mary Ann Wilson, Effingham, is the 1984 recipient of the Computer Management Award, established by student members of the Collegiate Chapter of the Data Processing Management Association.

The award "recognizes the student whose personal qualities, work habits, interest and service to the organization promises service of distinction in the field of computer management."

Miss Wilson's name will appear on a plaque in Blair Hall, location of the College of Business.
