FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

NAMED TO WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS

Charleston, IL--The 1992 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will include the names of 153 students from Eastern Illinois University who have been selected as national outstanding leaders.

These students were selected based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations. Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

NOTE TO THE EDITOR (Marshall Independent): Two local students have been named to the 1992 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Catherine L. VanGilder, a 1977 graduate of Casey High School, is a graduate student at EIU majoring in special education. She and her husband, Bill, reside in Marshall and have two children. Barbara McQueen, a graduate student majoring in special education, has also been named to "Who's Who..." Barbara and her husband, Tom, reside in Marshall and have four children. Both McQueen and VanGilder were also selected as recipients of a Special Education Recognition Award given for excellence in leadership, scholarship, and service.
