FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EILERS AND KLOSTERMANN RECEIVE BUSINESS AWARDS

CHARLESTON -- Wendy Eilers, daughter of Dick and Betty Eilers of Highland, and Peggy Klostermann, daughter of Philip and Sharon Klostermann of Highland, are recipients of business awards from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

Eilers, a senior marketing and graphic design major, received the Beta Gamma Sigma 1997-98 Scholarship. This scholarship is given to a Beta Gamma Sigma student member who exhibits an enduring commitment to the principles of the society: pursuit of wisdom, honor and integrity, and earnestness.

Klostermann, senior finance major, is the recipient of the Beta Gamma Sigma Presidential Award. This award is given to a Beta Gamma Sigma officer or member who has provided outstanding service to the chapter.

Eilers is a 1992 Highland High School graduate and Klostermann is a 1994 Highland graduate.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.
