CHARLESTON, IL--Daryl Wieland, a senior Finance major at Eastern Illinois University, received the Lumpkin College of Business Dean's Award, presented annually to a senior based on scholarship, experience, character and service to the university.

Wieland, a 1985 graduate from Lincolnway High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wieland of New Lenox.

The $700 scholarship award was established to recognize and reward the outstanding achievements of a student among persons pursuing a course of study in a business curriculum.
