FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, ILL. (March 3, 1986)--It's show time for the Eastern Illinois men's basketball team. The Panthers--17-12 overall-- travel to Springfield, Mo. for the AMCU-8 Post-Season Tournament March 6-8.

EIU--which finished third in the league with an 8-6 mark and received the number three seed--will take on number six seed Valparaiso (9-18, 5-9) Thursday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Ironically enough, the Crusaders defeated the Panthers twice during the regular season by 88-80 and 75-74 verdicts.

WLBH radio (97 FM) in Mattoon will broadcast all of Eastern's AMCU-8 tournament games beginning with the EIU-Valparaiso contest Thursday. Marc Stuart will do the play-by-play with the pre-game show beginning at 3:20 p.m..

"I'm pleased with our seed in the tournament," admits Eastern Illinois head coach Rick Samuels. "We are opposite Cleveland State and wouldn't meet them until the finals. However, our first objective is to beat Valparaiso. They give us problems in the fact that we don't matchup well with them. We must rebound better and not let them get second and third shots like they did earlier this season."

The winner of the Eastern Illinois-Valparaiso contest will take on the winner of (No. 2) Southwest Missouri- (No. 7) Wisconsin-Green Bay Friday night at either 6:35 or 8:35 p.m. The title game is Saturday night at 7:35 p.m.

MEDIA NOTE: Eastern Illinois assistant sports information director Don Kojich can be reached at the Springfield, Mo. University Plaza beginning Wednesday afternoon. The phone number is (417) 864-7333.

A YEAR AGO: Eastern Illinois was 17-10 at this time last season before sweeping through the field to win its first AMCU-8 Post-season Tournament. The Panthers defeated Southwest Missouri, 75-64, to capture the title.

WHAT A FINISH: Senior center KEVIN DUCKWORTH accomplished a feat Saturday night most athletes and laymen only dream about. The imposing 7-0, 290-pounder closed out his Eastern career at home by scoring a career-high 31 points en route to the Panthers 95-70 win over Illinois-Chicago. "Sir Duck" hit 13 of 15 from the field and 5 of 6 from the charity stripe. He also garnered a game-high 12 boards to become EIU's all-time leading rebounder with 840. Bob Rickett (1962-65) held the old mark of 828 for 21 years. Duckworth was named the AMCU-8 Player of the Week for his accomplishments.

PRIME TIME PLAYER: SIR DUCK has been attracting a great deal of national exposure lately. Duckworth was named the MOST UNDERRATED PLAYER IN THE COUNTRY by a poll conducted by CBS SPORTS through the National Association Basketball Coaches. He was featured at half-time of the Duke-Oklahoma game a couple of weeks ago. The technology education major is averaging 19.1 points and 9.1 rebounds a contest. His 263 boards as a senior is a AMCU-8 single-season mark. He is ranked in the top 15 in the country in field goal percentage with a .625 mark. Over the past six contests Duckworth has canned a 50 of his last 68 attempts from the field for a scorching .735.. Basketball Weekly just named him one of the TOP 50 seniors in the country last week.

GRABBING THE BRASS RING: All-American forward JON COLLINS IS 11 points shy of becoming EIU's all-time leading scorer. The E. St. Louis, Ill. native has 1645 career points while John Milholland (1956-58) holds the school mark with 1655. Collins leads the team in scoring with a 19.8 average and has scored in double figures in 50 consecutive games and 84 of his last 87. He scored 21 points and grabbed four boards in the Panthers 95-70 win over Illinois-Chicago.

AMONG THE ELITE: Fifth-year senior DOUG CROOK moved into 10th place in Eastern Illinois scoring history with a 19-point effort against Illinois-Chicago. He has 1148 career points while over-taking Jeff Furry (1973-76) who tallied 1146. "Crooker"--one of the inspirational leaders of the squad--is third on the team in scoring with a 13.6 average. He also chalked up eight boards in the win against the Flames.
