FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

JANSEN RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Andrea Jansen, daughter of Lawrence and Rose Jansen of Breese, is the recipient of the Phi Beta Lambda Most Outstanding Member Award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

The award is given to an active member of Phi Beta Lambda who contributes significantly to the growth and advancement of the local chapter, who is motivated and participates in fundraising and membership recruitment activities, regularly attends meetings and is actively involved in Phi Beta Lambda beyond the local level. The recipient also must maintain a minimum grade point average of 2.5.

A 1993 graduate of Mater Dei High School in Breese, Jansen is a senior finance and computer operations management major.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.
