FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

RODMAN RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Krysie Rodman, daughter of David and Pat Rodman, is the recipient of a Donald and Clara Alice Seaman Shawver Scholarship from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

Donald Shawver was a faculty member in marketing at Eastern after retiring from the University of Missouri. He also was the first recipient of the School of Business' Distinguished Alumnus Award. Alice Shawver is currently on the Business Advisory Board for the School of Business and is a past president of Eastern's Foundation Board.

The recipient of a Shawver Scholarship must be a resident of the central Illinois region who has demonstrated high scholastic ability.

Rodman is a junior computer management major and a 1995 graduate of Findlay High School.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state University of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.

Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
