FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TWENHAFEL RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Kara Twenhafel, daughter of Robert and Janet Twenhafel of Mascoutah, is the recipient of a Marketing Faculty Excellence Award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

The marketing faculty choose recipients who have excelled in the classroom and demonstrated understanding of marketing as a discipline through practical application.

Twenhafel graduated this spring with a marketing major. She is a 1993 graduate of Mascoutah Community High School.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.

Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
