For Immediate Release:

EIU STUDENTS BECOME MEMBERS OF ETA SIGMA GAMMA

CHARLESTON – The following Eastern Illinois University students recently were initiated into Eta Sigma Gamma, the national professional health education honorary.

The principal purpose of Eta Sigma Gamma is to elevate the standards, ideals, competence and ethics of professionally trained men and women in and for the health science discipline through research, service and teaching. Students eligible for initiation must maintain a specific grade point average and establish a track record of professional involvement.

New members include:

BUTLER: Samantha A. McFarlin, daughter of Alan and Marilyn McFarlin of Butler; 2001 graduate of Hillsboro High School; junior health studies major.

JACKSONVILLE: Ashleigh N. Hull, daughter of Bill and Linda Hull of Jacksonville; 1999 graduate of Jacksonville High School; senior health studies major.

NEW LENOX: Amie K. Bingham, daughter of Peter and Donna Bingham of New Lenox; 2000 graduate of Lincoln-Way High School in New Lenox; junior health studies major.
