March 6, 1986 - Select 4

CHARLESTON, IL--Mrs. Nancy Froelich, of Gridley, vice chairman of the Illinois Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities, recently made the welcoming remarks at Eastern Illinois University's Affirmative Action Day luncheon.

During the awards luncheon, the Affirmative Action Office presented checks for $500 each to the Department of Journalism and Women's Studies Council for their efforts to promote equality among minorities and women.

The keynote address was presented by Dr. Reginald Wilson, director of the Office of Minority Concerns, American Council of Education.
