FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ADULT STUDENT RECOGNITION CEREMONY TO BE HELD

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University's School of Adult and Continuing Education will hold its eighth annual Adult Student Recognition Ceremony at 6:30 p.m., Monday, May 15, in the University Ballroom of the University Union.

During the ceremony, 76 students will be inducted into Alpha Sigma Lambda (ASL), an adult student honor society. The Career Occupations Bachelor of Science and Board of Governors Bachelor of Arts degree programs will present awards to their students.

Stephen C. Falk, vice president for institutional advancement, and Terry Weidner, associate vice president for academic affairs, also will be inducted as professional members of ASL.

Barbara Hill, provost and vice president for academic affairs, will present the Paul Overton Award to Larry Helsel, professor, EIU's School of Technology. The award recognizes faculty members for outstanding long-term service to EIU and significant contributions to the School of Adult and Continuing Education off-campus programs.
