FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THIRTY-EIGHT INITIATED INTO KAPPA DELTA PI

CHARLESTON -- Thirty-eight students were recently initiated into Kappa Delta Pi at Eastern Illinois University.

Kappa Delta Pi is an international honor society in education organized to recognize excellence in education. An individual becomes a member of the society by invitation from a local chapter whose members have approved the candidacy. Such an invitation is based on high academic achievement, a commitment to education as a career and a professional attitude which assures the member's steady growth in the field of education.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.

Listed below are those students initiated into Kappa Delta Pi:
Annapolis--Beverly Artzberger, wife of Thomas Artzberger of Annapolis and mother of Renee Rosenthal and Jason Rosenthal; daughter of Reid and Ruth Artman of Annapolis; senior special
