FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LOCAL STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO BETA GAMMA SIGMA

CHARLESTON -- Four local students have been inducted into Beta Gamma Sigma, an international business honors society at Eastern Illinois University.

They are Amy Edwards, Sandra Bingham-Porter and Kathy Reed, all of whom are graduate students in business administration at Eastern and reside in Charleston; and Angela Sampson of Mattoon, also a graduate student in Eastern's MBA program.

Edwards is the daughter of Terry and Mickey Wright of Anna and a 1990 graduate of Anna-Jonesboro Community High School in Anna. She resides in Charleston with her husband, Bob.

Bingham-Porter is a Charleston High School graduate, and Reed graduated from Herscher High School.

Sampson is the daughter of David and Karen Sampson of Mattoon and a 1990 graduate of Mattoon High School.

To be eligible for membership, a student must rank in the top 7 percent of the junior class, top 10 percent of the senior class, or top 20 percent of the graduating master's class.

Founded in 1913, Beta Gamma Sigma honors academic achievement and personal excellence in the study and practice of business.
