FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CARRUTHERS RECEIVES AWARDS

CHARLESTON -- Racheal Carruthers, daughter of Janetta Carruthers of Vandalia, is the recipient of the James C. Copley Foundation Sophomore and the Montgomery Graphics/Journalism awards from Eastern Illinois University.

The James C. Copley Foundation Sophomore award is presented annually to an outstanding sophomore majoring in journalism, who works on student publications, and who demonstrates the intent to enter the journalism profession.

The Montgomery Graphics/Journalism award is presented to a Daily Eastern News staff member who has "the talent to be a successful professional graphic artist for a newspaper or magazine." The recipient must be a sophomore or junior in good academic standing and be a staff member of the student newspaper or other student publication.
