FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--The Daily Eastern News, Eastern Illinois University's student newspaper, has been nationally-recognized for editorial and business operation excellence.

The News received its eighth consecutive All-American rating from the Associated Collegiate Press (ACP), the national college newspaper critiquing service, for its 1981 fall semester publications.

Marsha Hausser, Peoria, senior journalism major, was editor.

The News was also named the Trendsetter Newspaper in business and advertising Managers Association. The organization also named Laura Rzepka of Chicago its outstanding student advertising manager.

In presenting its highest ranking to the News, the ACP called the paper "a quality publication, evidencing a great number of superior strengths..."
