ROTC AWARD

Shell is a 1987 graduate of LaGrange Lyons Township High School and is a junior majoring in computer management at EIU. He is a member of the Data Processing Management Association.

The American Legion award is presented to cadets in the U.S. Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps who show a high degree of excellence in scholarship endeavors.

The ROTC trains college students to become commissioned officers as second lieutenants in the Army, Army National Guard or Reserve Forces.
