FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--A "Creative Writer's Workshop" will be held at Eastern Illinois University on Saturday, Sept. 19 from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Tuscola-Arcola Room of the University Union.

The workshop is designed to give practical information on how to produce and market feature articles, books, and other types of writing. Sponsors are the Mattoon Branch of the National League of American Pen Women, Eastern's Journalism Department, and the English Department.

Topics to be covered include how to sell to newspapers, how to write and market novels, how to write for educational journals, how to write a newspaper story, and how to write poetry.

Workshop staff members are Rodger J. Cramer, Executive Editor, Champaign (Ill.) News-Gazette; and the following Eastern faculty members: Roger Whitlow, English; Lucina P. Gabbard, English; David Reed, Journalism; and Bruce Guernsey, English.

Registration fee is $15. Checks should be made payable to Eastern Illinois University and mailed to the Office of Public Service and Development. Interested persons may also register by telephone, (217) 581-3817. Briefing materials and lunch are included in the fee. Check-in time for the workshop is 9 a.m.
