FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Dr. Rudolph Anfinson, a Charleston businessman and professor emeritus, Eastern Illinois University, is the President-elect of the State Universities' Annuitants' Association of Illinois.

Anfinson, who retired from Eastern in 1976 after 37 years as a faculty member and administrator, was elected to the position at the Association's annual meeting. He will become president on July 1, 1983. Anfinson is affiliated with Unfinished-Unfinished, a retail store in Charleston.

The Association works with the Universities' Retirement System, the Pension Laws Commission, the Illinois General Assembly and other groups in promoting the welfare of approximately 100,000 retired employees, spouses and survivors.

The Association will meet four times in 1982-83: in October at Eastern, in March at Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, at Northern Illinois University in May, and at Allerton Park, the annual session, in July.

Officers of the Eastern Illinois University Chapter are Lawrence Ringenberg, President; Florence Ewing, Vice President; and Ruth Erckmann, Secretary-Treasurer.

At a recent meeting of the officers and executive committee, preliminary arrangements for the October meeting at Eastern were approved.

Representing the Eastern chapter at the annual meeting were four voting delegates: Anfinson, Erckmann, Ringenberg, and Garland Riegel, the chapter's president for the past two years.
