FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU HOLDS ANNUAL RETIREMENT DINNER

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University honored 29 faculty and staff at the 12th annual university retirement dinner held April 29.

EIU President David Jorns opened the program and later presented the Livingston C. Lord Distinguished Service Award and the University Service Awards for Administration and Faculty. The awards are the highest honors Eastern bestows.

Larry Williams, dean of the Graduate School and Research, received the Livingston C. Lord Distinguished Service Award; Michael Goodrich, professor of zoology, the University Service Award/Faculty; and Joyce Crouse, chair and professor in the School of Home Economics, the University Service Award/Administrator.

The video, "A Trip Down Memory Lane," featuring "Centennial Minute" interviews with EIU alumni, provided the evening's entertainment.

Retiring faculty and their years of service are Sharon Bartling, professor, English, 23; Marvin Breig, professor, physics, 32; Joyce Crouse, professor, home economics, 27; Michael Goodrich,
