FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

YOST RECEIVES UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH GRANT

CHARLESTON -- Susan Yost of Watson has been awarded a $500 undergraduate research grant from Eastern Illinois University.

The grant will allow Yost to assess and compare the nature of Catholic and Protestant witch hunts in early modern Europe.

Her faculty research sponsor is Joy Kammerling, assistant professor of history.

A 1971 graduate of Robinson High School, Yost is a senior social science major at Eastern.

Yost is the daughter of Robert and Frances Love of Robinson, and the spouse of David Yost of Watson. They have four children: Bridget, John, Mike and Matt.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.
