Art "Ozzie" Fox had just enrolled in Eastern Illinois University after a stint in the U.S. Army when he met fellow newcomer Jerry Van Dyke, and the two developed a "good friendship." The friends -- Van Dyke, shown on the left with his "guitoleit," and Fox, right, with a ukulele -- decided to entertain the crowds gathered to see Eastern's 1952 Homecoming Parade. Although they decided to walk the parade route, the two "hillbillies" did take advantage of what opportunities they could to "sit down and rest a spell." Fox, now of Arizona, and Van Dyke, who lives in Arkansas, plan to renew their friendship at this year's Homecoming festivities.
