FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU RECOGNIZES EMPLOYEES FOR SERVICE

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University recently honored 461 employees, with a combined total of 5,080 years of service, at the annual years of service luncheon held in April.

Highlighting the luncheon was the presentation of the Civil Service University Award to Janet Fraembs, administrative clerk, School of Adult and Continuing Education.

Maxine Clayton, administrative assistant to EIU President David Jorns, was recognized for 40 years of service.

Clayton's career at Eastern began in 1955 when she worked for then director of the placement office, William Zeigel. She continued to work for Zeigel until he retired in 1969 as vice president for administration. She worked for Glenn Williams, vice president for student affairs for a number of years, and in 1983, became EIU President Dan Marvin's secretary. She also worked for President Stan Rives, becoming his administrative assistant in 1987. Clayton will retire in June.
