FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--William L. Clark, an administrator at Eastern Illinois University, has been named to a post with the National Association for Campus Activities.

Clark, Area Head for Student Activities and University Union, has been elected Vice Chairman for Program Services, Board of Directors, of the Association.

His previous NACA activities include regional treasurer, regional coordinator and membership on the regional (Illiana) steering committee.

Based in Columbia, S.C., NACA is the largest educational, trade and professional service association in campus activities. More than 900 colleges and universities are members.
