FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HUTSON INDUCTED INTO ALPHA SIGMA LAMBDA

CHARLESTON -- Darrel Hutson, son of Chester and Lena Hutson of Beecher City, was inducted into Alpha Sigma Lambda at Eastern Illinois University.

Alpha Sigma Lambda is a national honor society of adult students who divide their time between family, work, school and community. Members have a grade point average of 3.5 or higher.

Hutson is a senior accounting and finance major and a 1976 graduate of Beecher City Community High School.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.

Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
