FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STUDENT MARSHALS

CHARLESTON, IL--Michelle Graham, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Graham of Wellington, and Randy Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sims of Charleston, pose with Dr. Ted Ivarie, Dean of the Lumpkin College of Business at Eastern Illinois University.

Graham and Sims were selected as student marshals for the recent commencement ceremony at the University.

Graham, a 1986 graduate of Wellington High School, is a junior majoring in accounting.

She is a member of Tassels Honorary Society, Delta Mu Delta and Phi Alpha Eta. She is a recipient of the Mr. and Mrs. William -more-

Craig Simmons Scholarship and Hobart F. Heller Scholarship.

Sims, a 1984 graduate of Charleston High School, is a senior majoring in personal management and marketing.

He has served as president of the American Marketing Association and as a member of the Lumpkin College of Business Dean's Student Advisory Board and student representative of the Lumpkin College of Business Curriculum Committee. He is a recipient of the 1988-89 St. Louis American Marketing Association Outstanding Marketing Student Award.

The marshals serve as official ushers for various college occasions, particularly for commencement exercises. During the commencement, they wore white academic robes, carried batons decorated with EIU's colors of blue and gray and assisted with the processional and recessional.
