FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--A special on education will be featured on the American Business Network (BizNet) program via Premium 1, Channel 12, Liberty TCI on Thursday, July 26 from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., according to John Beabout, Director of the Radio and Television Center at Eastern Illinois University.

Included will be a four and one-half minute tape about Eastern's College of Business and the Center.

The viewer interactive program is titled "The Vital Connection: Higher Education and Business." George Nebel, President of Roadmaster Corp. in Olney, will be a participant from the Center via a telephone interconnect.

Other guests live on the program will be Sen. Paul Simon (Ill.), and Dr. Milton Harris, Chairman of the National Academy of Sciences.

Scheduled on tape are Mary Futrell, President of the National Education Association; Milton Goldberg, Chairman of the National Council for Excellence in Education; and Terell Bell, Secretary of Education.
