FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

NINE INITIATED INTO SIGMA RHO EPSILON

CHARLESTON -- Nine students were recently initiated into Sigma Rho Epsilon at Eastern Illinois University.

Sigma Rho Epsilon is the honor society for special education majors at EIU. To qualify for membership, students must have an overall grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale and a special education grade point average of 3.25.

The primary purpose of Sigma Rho Epsilon is to recognize and encourage scholastic excellence, develop leadership abilities, engage in community service and promote fellowship among professionals, faculty and students.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.

Listed below are those students initiated into Sigma Rho Epsilon:

Arlington Heights--Laura Voigt, daughter of Roger and Lillian Voigt
