FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--"Honesty and Deception: Communications Ethics" is the topic of a workshop scheduled at Eastern Illinois University on Thursday, July 26 at 6:30 p.m. in Room 112, Coleman Hall.

The workshop is part of a course in public relations in the Department of Speech Communications. The two and one-half hour session will include a lecture, audience discussion and participation in case studies.

Conducting the workshop will be Dr. Jim Jaksa, Professor of Speech Communication at Western Michigan University. The public is invited to all or part of the session, according to Dr. Don Garner, course instructor.

Garner said that space is limited and interested persons should contact the Department (581-2016) for reservations and further information.

Jaksa, author of several books and articles, serves as a consultant in the area of communications ethics.
