FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Maureen Foertsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Foertsch of Oak Lawn and a senior at Eastern Illinois University, will serve as the fall semester 1984 managing editor and the spring semester 1985 editor-in-chief for Eastern's award-winning student newspaper, The Daily Eastern News.

Miss Foertsch, who last year served as associate news editor, will be in charge of production and the wire page, as well as the physical design and layout of the paper. Also, she will assist in the ranking of stories.

"I hope to be more efficient and organized, so the efficiency and organization of the paper can be improved," she said.

The position of editor-in-chief, usually held for a year, is being split between Miss Foertsch and Madeliene Doubek, of Chicago, who will hold the position in the fall.
