III. Items Added to the Agenda.

No items were added to the agenda.

IV. Agenda Items Acted On:

- Presentation by Dr. James Tidwell regarding the search for the Associate Vice President for Academic Technology.

Dr. Tidwell explained that the new Center for Academic Technology would incorporate part of Media Services and that User Services, over the next six months, would be discussing their contribution to the Center. The head of the center will be an Associate Vice President and Dr. Tidwell is the head of the search committee to fill this position. The position has been advertised and there has been a good response: twenty-eight applications have been submitted. A review of these applications is underway to select the ten strongest candidates. The final three to five candidates will be invited to on-campus interviews in late August or early September.

Dr. Tidwell also commented that a secretarial position is being filled. The new CAT center will be temporarily located in 108 Blair Hall until new permanent quarters for the center are chosen.

Agenda Item Order was changed to accommodate the guest.

THEATRE ARTS (B.A.) Revision
The Department of Theatre offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree. It concentrates on undergraduate programs that stress the interdependency of academic and production experiences. This liberal arts program emphasizes the importance of a broad theatre background and the mastery of theatre fundamentals in preparation for the more advanced training found in graduate schools or in professional theatre internship/apprentice programs, or for a career in theatre education.

All students begin a major in Theatre Arts with a core of requirements. Through audition, interview and/or advisement, the Theatre Arts major then selects a particular emphasis that will aid in attaining career goals. Theatre Arts majors must earn a minimum of at least a “C” (2.0) in each major course. A GPA of not less than 2.5 is required in the major.

V. Remarks:

Dr. Ron Wohlstein expressed pleasure over his opportunity to serve as the chair of the Council for the last year and thanked the faculty Council members, the student Council members, Dr. Herrington-Perry, and Dr. Lida Wall for their services in the past year. Dr. Wohlstein also expressed regret at Dr. Wall's retirement, stating that her service as the Dean of the College of Sciences and as the Interim Vice-President for Academic Affairs had been greatly beneficial to Eastern Illinois University. In conclusion, Dr. Wohlstein welcomed Dr. Andy Methven into his new position as the chair of the Council of Academic Affairs.

VI. Resolutions:

Dr. Bock, on behalf of the Council on Academic Affairs, offered the following resolution.

WHEREAS: Dr. Ron Wohlstein has served as the Chair of the Council on Academic Affairs for the year 2000 - 2001.

WHEREAS: Ron Wohlstein has guided the CAA with distinction during that time.

WHEREAS: Ron Wohlstein has led the CAA with an open style that included everyone.

WHEREAS: Ron Wohlstein has had a major impact on the General Education program at EIU.

Therefore be it RESOLVED that Ron Wohlstein be commended for his leadership of the CAA.

The meeting adjourned at 9:38 a.m.

Luann Karr, Coordinator.
