STUDENT MARSHALS

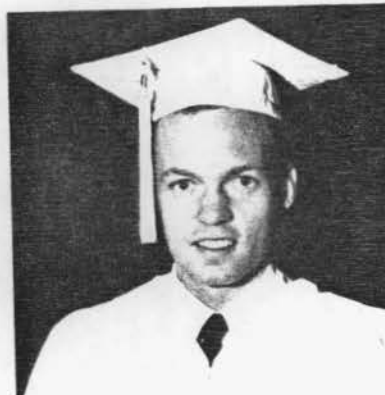

Randy Sims, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sims of Charleston and a 1984 graduate of Charleston High School, is a senior majoring in personal management and marketing. He has served as president of the American Marketing Association and as a member of the Lumpkin College of Business Dean's Student Advisory Board and student representative of the Lumpkin College of Business Curriculum Committee. He is a recipient of the 1988-89 St. Louis American Marketing Association Outstanding Marketing Award.

The marshals serve as official ushers for various college occasions, particularly for commencement exercises. During the commencement, they wore white academic robes, carried batons decorated with EIU's colors of blue and gray and assisted with the processional and recessional.
