figures, for which Walker is best known. Other carvings include replicas of vehicles, a working Ferris wheel and kinetic constructions.

Ceramics: Recent Works by Bill Heyduck and the Final Works of Peter Slavish, through Oct. 13, pays tributes to two Illinois ceramists and educators. Bill Heyduck recently retired from the art faculty at Eastern after twenty-nine years of service. Until his death this year, the late Peter Slavish was a member of the art faculty at Blackburn College in Carlinville. Both men remained committed to their art in spite of heavy teaching and administrative loads.

Objects of Personal Significance, through Oct. 13, surveys the still life as subject for contemporary women artists in the U.S. Making up the exhibit are 29 works in a variety of media that stretch the usual definition of "still life," including assemblages, installations and photographs as well as more traditional paintings and drawings. The artists represented are from a variety of cultural and artistic backgrounds.
