FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Representatives from approximately 25 Illinois community colleges will attend Eastern Illinois University's ninth annual Community College Articulation Conference, according to Dr. Sam Taber, Dean of Student Academic Services and Director of Community College Relations.

Date of the conference is Wednesday, Oct. 27. Taber said the conference "is an ongoing and systematic effort to maintain and enhance relations with two-year Illinois colleges." Taber said about one-third of Eastern's undergraduate enrollment comes from the two-year institutions.

Representatives at the conference will meet with their former students now at Eastern, and with chairpersons to discuss transfer experiences.

Also participating will be a number of prospective transfer students. Activities will include orientation, campus tours, and meetings with faculty members.
