FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EASTERN OFFERS COURSES IN ST. JOE

CHARLESTON – Eastern Illinois University is offering one course at St. Joseph High School during the spring semester.

“Occupational Perspectives: Past, Present, Future” will be offered from 6 to 8:40 p.m. on Tuesdays, beginning Jan. 11 through April 25. The three-semester-hour course studies the nature of careers and occupations from varying perspectives including historical, philosophical, technological, educational, economic, psychological and others, together with prospects and directions for the future. Six semester hours of education, sociology and/or history, or permission of the program director is required before enrolling.

For more information, visit Eastern’s School of Adult and Continuing Education website at <<http://www.eiu.edu/~adulsted>> or call 1-800-446-8918 or 217-581-5114.

Early registration is encouraged.
