FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EASTERN NAMES GREEK WEEK CO-CHAIRS

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's Student Activities Office has named the co-chairs for the University's annual Greek Week to be held April 10-18. This year's Greek Week theme is "Paint the Town Greek".

In addition to participating in Greek games and other activities, members of Eastern's fraternities and sororities display their community support during the annual Greek Week by supporting worthwhile philanthropies. This year they are raising money for AIDS research and sponsoring a canned food drive. They will also be participating in "Into the Streets," a nationwide program to promote campus involvement with the community.

NOTE TO THE EDITOR (Southtown Economist): Three area students have been named as Greek Week Co-Chairs. Timothy McGuire, son of Robert and Phyllis McGuire of Chicago, will represent the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity as Co-Chairman of the Committee of Public Relations. McGuire is a 1988 graduate of Marist High School and is presently a senior majoring in business. Brian Riordan, son of Dr. and Mrs. James Riordan of Chicago, has been named as Greek Week Elections Co-Chair. Riordan is a 1989 graduate of Marian Catholic High School and is presently a junior majoring in political science, pre-law. He will represent the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Dana Wulff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wulff of Oak Lawn, will represent the Delta Zeta sorority as Greek Week Community Service Co-Chair. A 1989 graduate of Oak Lawn Community High School, Wulff is currently a junior majoring in sociology.
