FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--G. Richard Wamsley, a native of Charleston and a graduate of Eastern Illinois University, has been inaugurated as the fourth president of Nebraska Christian College in Norfolk.

He received a Master of Science in Education degree from Eastern in 1972. Wamsley holds the Master of Divinity degree from Lincoln Christian Seminary and is completing requirements for a Doctor of Ministry degree at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Ill.

During his undergraduate study for the ministry at Lincoln Christian College, Wamsley was minister of the Allerton Church of Christ, Allerton. While in graduate school, he served the Sidney Church of Christ. He later worked for the Christian Campus Foundation at the University of Illinois.

He began his first full-time ministry at the Christian Church in Taylorville. In 1976 he was named the first Dean of Students at Nebraska Christian College. Wamsley is married to the former Delores Walker of Urbana.

Nebraska Christian College was incorporated in 1944 as an educational institution of the Churches of Christ and Christian Churches.

Wamsley was born in Charleston on May 6, 1947, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wamsley.
