FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Dr. Thomas L. Elliott, a faculty member at Eastern Illinois University, has been honored by the Illinois Business Education Association (IBEA).

Elliott, a Professor of Business Education and Administrative Office Management, is the 1982 recipient of the IBEA's Distinguished Service Award.

He was cited for contributions to business education through service as committee chairman and officer of the IBEA, for leadership in the program of the Illinois Business Teacher Education Council, for classroom teaching, and service as department chairman at Eastern.

The award was presented at the Springfield meeting by Barbara Blunk, IBEA President. The IBEA, active since 1935, has approximately 1200 members.
