FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Scott Gilleland (Barrington), Eastern Illinois University center, was named First Team All-Mid Continent Conference by a vote of the league coaches.

A four year letterman, Gilleland started every game at center for the Panthers who finished 6-5 for their fourth straight winning season. During these years EIU was 36-14, the best collegiate won-lost mark among Illinois state schools.

"Scott was the only senior on a freshman-sophomore dominated line. He held things together on the field . . . exhibited great leadership," said line coach Greg Dubinetz.

"By the end of the season we were playing very consistent football, and I think Scott's contributions were recognized by the league coaches."
