FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL.--Fifty Charleston area senior citizens will be able to attend Thursday's (April 24) Burl Ives benefit concert compliments of the Bank of Charleston.

'An Evening with Burl Ives' will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday at Eastern Illinois University's McAfee Gym. Tickets are priced at $9.50 reserved and $7.50 unreserved with all proceeds benefitting the Foundation's Tenth Decade fund drive to construct a 20-room art studio.

The Bank of Charleston has purchased 50 tickets which will be distributed through the Charleston Area Senior Activities Center.

"We are pleased that we can provide an opportunity for some area senior citizens to attend this performance and, at the same time, assist with the art studio fund drive," said Joe Baptist, president of the Bank of Charleston.

"On behalf of the University, I wish to extend my thanks to the Bank of Charleston for its support of the concert and fund drive. The senior citizens who will benefit by this generosity are contemporaries of Mr. Ives, and should have a most enjoyable evening," said Vaughn Jaenike, dean of the College of Fine Arts.

Tickets can be purchased from 11-3 daily at the University Union Ticket Office.
