FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

COOK JOINS EASTERN

CHARLESTON, IL--Kathleen Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook of Montevideo, MN, has joined the staff at Eastern Illinois University as an assistant professor of flute.

Eastern Illinois University, located in Charleston, places priority on teaching excellence for a high quality student body in a residential setting and offers faculty a wide range of research and public service activities.

Approximately 10,000 on-campus students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites.

Prior to joining the EIU staff she was an assistant professor of music at the University of Wyoming and an instructor of flute at Luther College.

Cook earned her bachelor's degree in music at Morningside College, Sioux City, in 1980, and her master's degree in music at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1982. She is currently working on her doctorate in musical arts from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
