FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Cornerback Bill Roscoe (New City, NY-Ramapo), a 5-9, 180 transfer from Iowa Central CC, has enrolled at Eastern Illinois University for spring semester, head coach Darrell Mudra said.

Roscoe, a two year starter at Iowa Central, was named first team all-conference this season. The Tritons were 9-1 and 4th in the nation his freshman season.

He prepped at Ramapo High School in New City, NY, where he was a two-time all-state selection as a defensive back, and lettered in basketball.

"We lost three starting defensive backs so there's definitely openings . . . we're pleased that Bill could come in this spring so as to benefit from spring practice," said assistant head coach Chuck Dickerson.

Eastern is going for a fifth straight winning season, unprecedented in school history. The Panthers were 6-5 in their initial season in NCAA I-AA last fall, and are 36-14 the past four years, the most successful collegiate football program in Illinois during this stretch.
