FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--The summer music preparatory program at Eastern Illinois University has openings for students of all ages and all levels in a variety of programs.

Beginning this summer and continuing on through next year, the EIU Prep Program will offer lessons in jazz and rock piano, theory and composition, beginning guitar, pop song writing as well as the traditional piano, voice and violin. Most lessons will start June 3; however, some summer programs can be changed to fit individual schedules.

In addition to these programs listed above, the Prep Program will offer a music games class for 6-10 year olds, called "Music Fundamentals" and a youth choir.

For further information, please call Chris Granias, 581-6118, or the Music Office, 581-3010.
