FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (July 9, 1987)

CHARLESTON, ILL.--Dr. D. G. Mulcahy, Professor and Head, Department of Education, University College, Cork, Ireland, will speak at Eastern Illinois University on Tuesday, July 14, 7:30 p.m., at Booth Library Lecture Room. There is no admission charge.

Mulcahy, who received his Ph.D. from Illinois in 1970, will discuss "General Education in the High School and the University." The lecture reflects Mulcahy's published research in liberal studies and general education in secondary and post-secondary schools. The lecture will consider the purpose and content of general education in the high school and the university which incorporates many features of the liberal tradition but also goes beyond that tradition.

In addition to the public lecture, Mulcahy will direct a workshop, July 13-16, on The Idea of a General Education. The workshop and lecture are part of the Distinguished Visiting Faculty summer program at Eastern focusing on the summer theme, "We The People: The American Opportunity for Interaction and Change."

Persons interested in attending the workshop may contact Dr. Charles Switzer, Summer School Director, for information on registration. The telephone number is area (217) 581-2023.
